19 FACTUAL HISTORY

20 11. The WILKES, a retired married couple, were introduced to ROSZKOWICZ by his 21 then wife (now ex-wife) at a dinner party in approximately 2003; at that time the WILKES were 22 residing in California. At the introduction, ROSZKOWICZ orally held himself out to be a
 23 mortgage broker who dealt in high interest short term loans and stated that if the WILKES needed
 24 a mortgage broker or consultant, they could contact him; at that time he took down the WILKES 25 telephone number and gave them his.

26 12. In approximately mid 2003, several weeks after the initial introduction at the dinner
 27 party, ROSZKOWICZ contacted the WILKES with, what he referred to as, a “great money 28 making deal,” that entailed a short term loan on a piece of undeveloped land. During this

1 telephone conversation, ROSZKOWICZ told the WILKES that they could make good money by 2 funding high interest short term loans to ROSZKOWICZ's borrowers. He explained that he 3 specialized in finding short term high interest loans for investors and paring them with his 4 borrowers.

5 13. Several days after the telephone call from ROSZKOWICZ, the WILKES met
6 ROSZKOWICZ at his office in Temecula, California where he presented them with a set of loan
7 documents to sign concerning the short term loan on the undeveloped land. ROSZKOWICZ
8 prepared all paperwork, explained it to the WILKES, and had them sign several documents.
9 Within one year after signing the documents for the undeveloped land deal, the loan was fully paid 10 off by the borrower and closed.

11 14. The WILKES did not hear from ROSZKOWICZ again until late 2006, where he 12 again called them and stated he had another 'great money making deal' - at this time the WILKES
13 were residing in Oregon. On or about October 30, 2006, ROSZKOWICZ telephoned and emailed
14 the WILKES information to see if they would like to fund a loan for Mr. and Mrs. LABERTEW.
15 ROSZKOWICZ explained that the loan was for a very nice couple that had been in their house for 16 40 years, but had run into some financial trouble due to Mr. LABERTEW's health. Mr.
17 LABERTEW had regained his health and had a full time job, but needed a loan to carry him over 18 until he could sell his home. The purchase contract was signed but the LABERTEWs were 19 concerned that the first would foreclose before the transaction could take place (signed Offer to 20 Purchase herein attached as Exhibit 1). ROSZKOWICZ stressed to the WILKES that loan would 21 allow Mr. LABERTEW to keep his home from foreclosure and his truck from repossession.

22 15. The WILKES accepted ROSZKOWICZ's proposal based on ROSZKOWICZ
23 representation that he was a licensed mortgage broker and knew what he was doing as they had 24 had 1 prior dealing with him in the past. In early November 2006, ROSZKOWICZ faxed from 25 California to the WILKES in Oregon all the loan documents. ROSZKOWICZ indicated on the 26 documents where the WILKES needed to sign and date. The WILKES signed the documents and 27 sent them back to ROSZKOWICZ. ROSZKOWICZ said he would execute the loan documents
28 and send the WILKES a copy of the executed agreement. The WILKES reasonably believed and

1 relied upon ROSZKOWICZ's representation that he was a licensed mortgage broker and knew 2 what he was doing.

3 16. After several months, the WILKES still had not received the executed loan
4 documents as promised by ROSZKOWICZ. The WILKES placed several telephone calls and 5 emails to ROSZKOWICZ requesting copies of the executed loan documents. ROSZKOWICZ on 6 several occasions orally represented to the WILKES that he had mailed the documents to them;
7 however, the WILKES never received the documents.

8 17. The LABERTEWs were to make their first payment on the loan April 1, 2007, but 9 failed to make it. On April 24, 2007, the WILKES sent the LABERTEW's a certified letter 10 informing them their payment was past due approaching the 30-day mark. Through various 11 emails, Mr. LABERTEW assured the WILKES that he had refinanced the house and they would 12 be provided with a payoff. To date, no payment has been made by the LABERTEW's on the 13 loan; the WILKES have born the entire cost on their own.

14 18. The WILKES fully funded the entire loan amount, including the commission
15 amount paid to ROSZKOWICZ for brokering the loan, and never received one cent in return.

16 19. In mid August 2007, the WILKES received a letter sent on behalf of the 17 LABERTEWs' by attorney Deborah L. Raymond claiming to rescind the loan. The WILKES
18 were contacted via telephone by Ms. Raymond who apparently was yelling and screaming at them 19 that they had violated several statues and had to rescind and revoke any interest the WILKES had 20 in the LABERTEW's property.

21 20. After speaking with Ms. Raymond, the WILKES immediately contacted
22 ROSZKOWICZ regarding the LABERTEW's attempt to rescind the loan. ROSZKOWICZ
23 informed the WILKES that C&R's attorney had reviewed the loan documents and assured
24 ROSZKOWICZ that the loan was executed properly and within the confounds of the law.
25 ROSZKOWICZ said his attorney prepared a letter for WILKES to send to Ms. Raymond and the 26 LABERTEWs; essentially the attorney had ghost written a letter for the WILKES to send in 27 response to the Notice of Rescission (herein attached as Exhibit 2).

28 21. During this same conversation, the WILKES demanded ROSZKOWICZ provide

1 them with a copy of the executed loan documents. ROSZKOWICZ said he would send them right
2 away; the WILKES finally received, from ROSZKOWICZ, copies of the loan documents in 3 September 2007 – almost a full year after the execution of the loan.

4 22. Upon being served with the Plaintiff's Complaint, the WILKES promptly hired 5 their own separate counsel, who reviewed all documents, and provided Plaintiffs with an 6 ACCEPTANCE OF RESCISSION ON NOVEMBER 7, 2007 (herein attached as Exhibit 3). On 7 November 12, 2007, Plaintiff's were provided with a follow-up letter and a detailed rescission
8 breakdown the WILKES expected Plaintiff's to tender to the WILKES in response to the loan
9 rescission (herein attached as Exhibit 3). To date no response to the WILKES requested tender, or 10 numerous requests for Plaintiff's tender, has been provided.

11 23. During the course of discovery, the WILKES determined that ROSZKOWICZ is 12 not in fact a licensed mortgage broker, but merely a real estate sales agent.

13 24. At all times mentioned herein, ROSZKOWICZ knew that he was not in fact a
14 licensed mortgage broker. ROSZKOWICZ knowingly misrepresented, concealed, and failed to 15 disclose this fact to the WILKES. Therefore, ROSZKOWICZ was not qualified to perform, as he
16 did in this case, as a mortgage broker, offering the WILKES advice, and setting up short term
17 loans. GOLDEN, CIB, and C&R as ROSZKOWICZ's employers knew or should have known
18 what that their employee was engaging in acts that only a licensed mortgage broker could perform.

19 25. ROSZKOWICZ intended to induce reliance on the part of the WILKES in entering
20 into the loan agreement with Plaintiff's based on the false representation that ROSZKOWICZ
21 was a licensed mortgage broker.

22 26. The WILKES did justifiably and reasonably rely on ROSZKOWICZ's
23 representation that it was a licensed mortgage broker. Had the WILKES known that
24 ROSZKOWICZ was not in fact so licensed, the WILKES would not have entered into said loan
25 agreement with Plaintiffs.

26 27. As a result of ROSZKOWICZ's misrepresentation the WILKES's have incurred
27 damages of sums paid under the loan to Plaintiffs', and fees and costs of defending themselves in 28 this lawsuit in an amount in excess of $100,000.

 2 GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were committed with the wanton and willful disregard of the rights of
 3 the WILKES in an effort to deceive the WILKES. Therefore, the WILKES are entitled to an
 4 award of exemplary and punitive damages according to proof.

9 35. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through
 10 34 above, and incorporates them by reference as though fully set forth herein.

11 36. At all times mentioned herein, ROSZKOWICZ knew that he was not in fact a
 12 licensed mortgage broker. ROSZKOWICZ knowingly misrepresented, concealed, and failed to 13 disclose this fact to the WILKES. Therefore, ROSZKOWICZ was not qualified to perform, as he
 14 did in this case, as a mortgage broker, offering the WILKES advice, and setting up short term
 15 loans. GOLDEN, CIB, and C&R as ROSZKOWICZ's employers knew or should have known
 16 what that their employee was engaging in acts that only a licensed mortgage broker could perform.

17 37. ROSZKOWICZ intended to induce reliance on the part of the WILKES in entering
 18 into the loan agreement with Plaintiff's based on the false representation that ROSZKOWICZ
 19 was a licensed mortgage broker.

20 38. The WILKES did justifiably and reasonably rely on ROSZKOWICZ's
 21 representation that it was a licensed mortgage broker. Had the WILKES known that
 22 ROSZKOWICZ was not in fact so licensed, the WILKES would not have entered into said loan
 23 agreement with Plaintiffs.

24 39. As a result of ROSZKOWICZ's misrepresentation the WILKES's have incurred
 25 damages of sums paid under the loan to Plaintiffs', and fees and costs of defending themselves in 26 this lawsuit in an amount in excess of $100,000.

27 40. The aforementioned conduct of ROSZKOWICZ, GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were
 28 oppressive, fraudulent, despicable and malicious. The aforementioned acts of ROSZKOWICZ,

1 GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were committed with the wanton and willful disregard of the rights of
 2 the WILKES in an effort to deceive the WILKES. Therefore, the WILKES are entitled to an
 3 award of exemplary and punitive damages according to proof.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Fraudulent Inducement to Contract)

6 (Against C&R FINANCIAL, INC., GOLDEN EMPIRE MORTGAGE, INC., dba
 7 CIB FUNDING, RAY ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive.)

8 41. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through
 9 40 above, and incorporates them by reference as though fully set forth herein.

10 42. At all times mentioned herein, ROSZKOWICZ knew that he was not in fact a
 11 licensed mortgage broker. ROSZKOWICZ knowingly misrepresented, concealed, and failed to 12 disclose this fact to the WILKES. Therefore, ROSZKOWICZ was not qualified to perform, as he
 13 did in this case, as a mortgage broker, offering the WILKES advice, and setting up short term
 14 loans. GOLDEN, CIB, and C&R as ROSZKOWICZ's employers knew or should have known
 15 what that their employee was engaging in acts that only a licensed mortgage broker could perform.

16 43. ROSZKOWICZ intended to induce reliance on the part of the WILKES in entering
 17 into the loan agreement with Plaintiff's based on the false representation that ROSZKOWICZ
 18 was a licensed mortgage broker.

19 44. The WILKES did justifiably and reasonably rely on ROSZKOWICZ's
 20 representation that it was a licensed mortgage broker. Had the WILKES known that
 21 ROSZKOWICZ was not in fact so licensed, the WILKES would not have entered into said loan
 22 agreement with Plaintiffs.

23 45. As a result of ROSZKOWICZ's misrepresentation the WILKES's have incurred
 24 damages of sums paid under the loan to Plaintiffs', and fees and costs of defending themselves in 25 this lawsuit in an amount in excess of $100,000.

26 46. The aforementioned conduct of ROSZKOWICZ, GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were
 27 oppressive, fraudulent, despicable and malicious. The aforementioned acts of ROSZKOWICZ,
 28 GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were committed with the wanton and willful disregard of the rights of

1 the WILKES in an effort to deceive the WILKES. Therefore, the WILKES are entitled to an
2 award of exemplary and punitive damages according to proof.

3 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Breach of Fiduciary Duty)

6 CIB FUNDING, RAY ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive.)

7 47. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through
8 46 above, and incorporates them by reference as though fully set forth herein.

9 48. On or about November 8, 2006, the WILKES entered into a loan agreement with 10 Plaintiffs, with C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ acting as the mortgage brokers. C&R, 11 GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ provided all loan documents and executed said documents
12 with the LABERTEWs. Furthermore, C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ explained in 13 detail to the LABERTEWs all documents that were to be executed.

14 49. Prior to and throughout the transaction C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ
15 acted as the mortgage brokers. As the WILKES agent and broker, C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and 16 ROSZKOWICZ owed the WILKES a fiduciary duty to make the fullest disclosure of all material
17 facts that might affect the WILKES decision to enter into the transaction. As the WILKES agent
18 and broker, C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ owed the WILKES a fiduciary duty to 19 competently, accurately, and in conformance with industry standard, execute all loan documents 20 within the transaction.

21 50. At all times mentioned herein, the WILKES were unaware that ROSZKOWICZ
22 was not a licensed mortgage broker or that C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, and ROSZKOWICZ failed to 23 properly execute the loan documents and transaction. In fact, the WILKES were not even 24 provided copies of the loan documents until September 2007 – almost an entire year after the 25 transaction took place and despite the WILKES constant requests to ROSZKOWICZ that he 26 provide them.

27 51. GOLDEN, CIB, and C&R as ROSZKOWICZ's employers knew or should have 28 known what that their employee was not a licensed mortgage broker and was in fact engaging in

1 acts that only a licensed mortgage broker could perform.

2 52. The WILKES did justifiably and reasonably rely on ROSZKOWICZ's
 3 representation that it was a licensed mortgage broker. Had the WILKES known that
 4 ROSZKOWICZ was not in fact so licensed, the WILKES would not have entered into said loan
 5 agreement with Plaintiffs.

6 53. As a result of ROSZKOWICZ, C&R, GOLDEN, and CIBs' breach of their 7 fiduciary duty to make the fullest disclosure of all material facts that might affect the WILKES
 8 decision to enter into the transaction, the WILKES's have incurred damages of sums paid under 9 the loan to Plaintiffs', and fees and costs of defending themselves in this lawsuit in an amount in 10 excess of $100,000.

11 54. The aforementioned breach of fiduciary duty by ROSZKOWICZ, GOLDEN, CIB 12 and C&R to the WILKES was oppressive, fraudulent, despicable and malicious. The 13 aforementioned acts of ROSZKOWICZ, GOLDEN, CIB and C&R were committed with the 14 wanton and willful disregard of the rights of the WILKES in an effort to deceive the WILKES.
 15 Therefore, the WILKES are entitled to an award of exemplary and punitive damages according to 16 proof.

17 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 55. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 54 above, and incorporates them by reference as though fully set forth herein.

23 56. There was an implied contract between the WILKES and C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, 24 ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive.

25 57. In the event the WILKES are found in some manner legally liable to Plaintiff, or 26 anyone else, as a result of the events and occurrences described in the Complaint, said liability is 27 solely based upon a derivative, vicarious and/or imputed form of liability, not resulting from the 28 WILKES's own conduct, but instead based upon an obligation imposed on them by law.

58. In the event the WILKES are found in any manner legally liable, such liability was proximately caused by the acts or omissions C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive and, therefore, the WILKES are entitled to recover from C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive, indemnity, whether total, partial, equitable, and/or implied.

59. Prior to the filing of this cross-complaint, the WILKES incurred certain COSTS in the evaluation and defense of this suit, which arose out of the an implied contract between the WILKES and C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive. The WILKES alleges that they are entitled to judgment over and against the C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive, and each of them, for all sums that the WILKES incurred in the aforementioned COSTS.

61. In the event the WILKES are found in some manner legally liable to Plaintiff, or to anyone else, as a result of the events and occurrences described in the Complaint, then any injuries and/or damages to Plaintiff were solely and/or substantially caused by the negligence and/or carelessness of C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive. 62. Prior to the filing of this cross-complaint, the WILKES incurred certain COSTS in the evaluation and defense of this suit, which arose out of the an implied contract between the

1 WILKES and C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive. The

9 63. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through

11 64. Cross-Complainant was in no way negligent or responsible for the acts, injuries or 15 extent of their fault as determined by the court, are obligated to reimburse, and will be liable to

19 (Negligence)

20 (Against C&R FINANCIAL, INC., GOLDEN EMPIRE MORTGAGE, INC., dba CIB

22 65. The WILKES reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 23 64 above, and incorporates them by reference as though fully set forth herein.

24 66. The WILKES are informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that C&R, 25 GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, inclusive, and each of them, negligently,
 26 carelessly, and wrongfully failed to use reasonable care and/or conform to the applicable 27 professional standard of care in preparing and executing the loan documents between the 28 WILKES and the LABERTEWs.

67. The WILKES are informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that that C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, and each of them, negligently and carelessly failed to exercise reasonable care and diligence to avoid loss and to minimize and mitigate damages which could have been prevented by reasonable efforts on the part of C&R, GOLDEN, CIB, ROSZKOWICZ, and ROES 1 to 50, or by procedures which should have been made in the exercise of due care in executing the loan documents.

(Declaratory Relief)

(Against LOWELL LABERTEW and SANDRA LABERTEW)

4 pursuant to Truth-in-Lending Act, as more fully discussed below.

5 74. Prior to the filing of this action, and in accordance with the Truth-in-Lending Act, 6 the WILKES agreed to accept Recession Amount on the LABERTEWS Loan, which is the 7 original principal balance minus all fees paid at the closing), to the sum of $52,978.35 (the 8 "Rescission Balance"). WILKES indicated to the LABERTEWS that WILKES would secure the 9 reconveyance of the LABERTEW Deed of Trust and cancel the LABERTEW Note, in exchange
10 for their payment of the Rescission Balance. However, to date, defendants have failed and/or 11 refused to obtain a new loan in order to pay the Rescission Balance to the WILKES. As a result, 12 the LABERTEWS have had and will continue to have the benefit of an interest-free loan from 13 WILKES.

14 75. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between WILKES and defendants, 15 the LABERTEWS, concerning their respective rights, duties, and obligations with regard to the 16 LABERTEW Loan, in that the WILKES has acknowledged defendants' statutory right to rescind
17 the Loan pursuant to 15 U.S.C Section 1635, if defendants will repay to the WILKES the 18 Rescission Balance required. The WILKES allege on information and belief that the Court may 19 condition the granting of rescission on the obligor's or consumer's tender to the creditor of the 20 Rescission Balance. (Palmer v. Wilson, 502 F.2d 860, 862 (9th Cir.1974)). Accordingly, the 21 WILKES contends that defendants are obligated to tender to the WILKES the Rescission Balance
22 before they are obligated to record a reconveyance of the LABERTEW Deed of Trust and/or 23 cancel the LABERTEW Note. Any other procedure would leave the WILKES unsecured and at 24 the mercy of a bankruptcy filing by the LABERTEWS.

25 76. The WILKES seek an order permitting it to enforce the LABERTEW Note and 26 Deed of Trust if the LABERTEWS fail to pay the Rescission Balance on or before a date set by the 27 Court.
28

1 77. The WILKES desire a judicial determination of the rights, duties, and obligations
2 of the parties hereto pursuant to the Federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601, et seq.)
3 and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. Section 226.23). More specifically, the WILKES seeks a declaration
4 from the Court that the WILKES is not required to reconvey the WILKES Deed of Trust until it
5 has received the Rescission Balance, and that the WILKES may enforce the LABERTEW Note
6 and Deed of Trust if the LABERTEWs do not pay the Rescission Balance by a date set by this 7 Court. Without such a judicial determination, the WILKES has no expeditious or adequate 8 remedy at law, and the WILKES is therefore entitled to judgment from this Court, declaring the 9 rights, duties, and obligations of the parties hereto.

Ms. Raymond:

Please accept this email as a formal acknowledgement of your rescission and an acceptance thereof. We will commence calculations and provide you with a number that we think should be provided to us for repayment of the loan given to your clients.

In order to give us time to negotiate the rescission amount, my client has postponed the foreclosure sale until January 30, 2008, which should give us ample time to work out the details. You may also take this email as a guarantee to keep you informed of subsequent foreclosure dates so that you may reapply a TRO if it becomes necessary.

Furthermore, I have been authorized to accept service of your complaint when you have it drafted. Please forward to me at your earliest convenience.

Finally, please withdraw your TRO from the Southern District Court as soon as possible. Please notify me within the next 48 hours if you have done so. Otherwise, I will need to prepare an opposition to the TRO and move accordingly.

Should you have any questions at any time, please find below my contact information.

Thanks,
